Are cabtek cabinets a good company?

We have been dealing with CabTek since 2012. They provide us with all the cabinets for the kitchens we design and sell. They are a great addition to our team as they will even pick up on little mistakes we've made ordering our cabinets. We highly recommend them!

What is a cabinet back?

Every cabinet back is made from a single piece of material, which increases structural integrity for larger cabinets and ensures long-term durability. Our wall cabinets also feature a solid 16mm back that provides greater strength and more flexibility when fixing to your wall.

Our custom flat-pack kitchen cabinet range makes up any kitchen design using base cabinets, wall oven cabinets and upper open shelving cabinets - all to your specifications.
